Principal Named for Maple Leaf School

Morden Manitoba,
Thursday, November 9, 2023

Western School Division is pleased to announce that Cindy Dick has been named the principal of Maple Leaf School. She will be assuming the role from the current principal, Samuel Jerema, who had previously been named to lead the new Discovery Trails School. Both Cindy and Samuel will assume their new duties on January 8th, 2024 when students return from the holiday break.

Cindy is currently one of the Vice-Principals at ÉMMS. Cindy has been a dedicated teacher and principal for over 30 years. She has served as a principal at a K – 8 Charter School in the USA, at Maple Leaf School (previously), and as a teaching principal at Roland Elementary. Cindy has her Master's in Educational Leadership, Bachelor of Education, and Level 1 and 2 School Administrator's Certificate. She believes in a student voice and a strong positive and collaborative approach to leadership. She is proud mother of 2 grown children and 3 grandchildren residing in Morden. During her free time, she enjoys reading books her daughter has written and spending time with her family. She is honoured and extremely excited to return to Maple Leaf School and take on this leadership role in Western School Division.
