Vice-Principal Named for École Discovery Trails

Morden Manitoba,
Wednesday, January 24th, 2024

Western School Division is pleased to announce that Jenn Kroetsch has been named the Vice-Principal of École Discovery Trails. She will assume her new duties when the school opens in September of 2024. Jenn will join Samuel Jerema who was previously named Principal, to complete the administrative team.

Jenn has over 18 years of experience in K-8 education. Since the fall of 2020, she has been the Vice-Principal and Resource Teacher at Minnewasta School. With a background in special education, she has a passion for making schools an inclusive place for all students. Jenn is looking forward to creating a welcoming and positive environment for students, staff, and families at École Discovery Trails in the fall.

In the coming weeks the Division will continue to work with students, families, and staff to prepare for the changes required to open École Discovery Trails. Construction is on schedule and today's announcement is another important step in the process.
